Members of School Board Discuss High School Sites.

on deferred payments: the multidings to take hold of the matter of purchashing a perm, nent site for High school purposes. It has taken no accord as yet, and is not likely to until after the special election on the leth inst., but most of the members have been interessing themselves in the matter lately, and there has been much discussion.

Two pieces of property are under discussion, the old Exposition grounds on the east side, and the old university site on the west side, and as is perfectly natural, the board to storyly drawn gas yet. The refusal of County Clerk James yesterday to promise that a marriage license would not be published in the newspapers in the list of wedding permits issued, caused a prospective groom to back out of an intention to get married.

Soon after the office opened for the day's business an ordinary appearing young man advanced to the counter and asked if he could get a marriage license.

"I am at your service," answered the clerk, "But where is your lady companion? She must be here, too, to make oath before the license can issue."

"Well, see here, I want to know something before we get the license," said the young man. "My girl is down on the next floor and she won't come up and don't care to get married unless you will promise that our license will not be published in the papers."

"I can't promise that our license will not be published in the papers."

"I can't promise that our license will not be published in the papers."

"Yes, you can keep our marriage out of the papers," suggested the anxious young man, "and if you will not promise to say anything about it and not it the reporters see the license, we won't get married.

That did settle it, and the young man left the office without giving his name or the name of the bride-elect. Probably they will reconsider their determination, but if so, it will be quite impossible to identify them.

MEETING OF STOCKMEN.—John H. White. A. D. Hudnall, B. F. Saunders and M. K. Parsons were the only men who responded to the gall for a meeting of cattle owners for the purpose of organizing the Utah Cattlemen's association in the Colorado Midland office yesterday afternoon. These four sat around for a few minutes, deploying the lack of interest shown and finally gave the thing up as hopeless. No further meeting will be called or held for the present.

MEDICAL DISTUSSION.—At last evening s meeting of the Sait Lake Medical society, Dr. McElroy read an entertaining paper on spiner amaesthesia—medullary and narcosis—that precipitated an interesting discussion, in which Drs. Whitney, Worthington, Behle, Gemmell, McErcy, Niles and Fisher took part, the latter two contending in favor of the use of ether, cocaine or chloroform in surgical operations rather than the use of the new Hea in anaesthetics. Before the reading of Dr. McElroy's paper, Dr Behle presented an extraordinary case, operated upon by Dr. Pinkerton recently, of extra uterine pregnancy.
